Foodservice in Retail - US

"Retailers are building out their prepared food programs to be more sophisticated and take direct aim at restaurants, as well as other retailers. They are differentiating with more on-site restaurants, which can range from a well-known quick-service chain to a fast casual restaurant helmed by a celebrity chef. And while ...

The Amazon Effect - US

Amazon is the world's second largest retailer behind Walmart, with $120 billion in US sales in 2017, up 71% in two years' time. This one company accounts for approximately 40% of total US ecommerce sales. Its membership program, Amazon Prime, surpassed the 100 million member mark globally this year, and ...

Activewear - US

"The activewear market continues to help lift the broader apparel market which has softened in the past few years as consumers have prioritized spending on experiences rather than tangible goods. More consumers are exercising and prioritizing their health and this should continue to fuel the market for performance items. Comparable ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"The economy continues its slow and steady recovery, though economists are hesitant to say that it has officially recovered. While some consumers may be watching economic indicators, many are not, and even those who are may not see the direct effects on their daily lives. Overall, if consumers were already ...

Traditional Toys and Games - US

"Toys and games remain very relevant to consumers, but while gifting – especially for children – drives sales, many are shopping the category for other reasons, including for adult recipients. Where and how most consumers fulfill their toy purchases remains in flux, with competitive changes impacting the category and providing ...

Online Grocery Shopping - US

"Despite doubling from 2013-18, online grocery sales in the US remain a small proportion of total grocery sales and an even smaller proportion of total eCommerce. Unlike other major product categories, adoption of online shopping in this sector has been slow, namely due to consumers' strong preference to shop in-store ...

Furniture Retailing - US

"The furniture category has grown consistently over past few years, which is expected to continue over the next five years, thanks to a stable housing market and increasing types of living situations, which creates more housing needs. Still, replacement dominates purchases, and consumers need new reasons and options to encourage ...

July 2018

Grocery Retailing - US

"The grocery industry will become $700+ billion strong within the next five years. During this time, it's likely that additional mergers and acquisitions will occur as competition inside and outside the industry (eg from restaurants) intensifies. While consumers' grocery shopping behaviors may be rather status quo for now, this will ...

Shopping for Home Décor - US

"The home décor market is expected to grow, thanks to healthy market factors and a genuine interest in decor, supported by the housing market and a retailer emphasis on the category. Although many consumers seem to enjoy shopping for décor, not always requiring a specific reason to shop, they're changing ...

Digital Advertising - US

"Sales of desktop and mobile banner and video ads have grown dramatically over the years, rising from $10.7 billion in 2013 to $39.3 billion in 2017. However, 2018 is the last year in which sales growth is expected to remain around or exceed 20%. This is likely because ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"Consumers remain confident in their financial health and anticipate little change in the coming year, resulting in stable patterns of financial opinions and behaviors. Consumers hope to save for the future while also maintaining spending levels that accommodate their current lifestyle. This Report looks at the role credit score plays ...

Men's and Women's Footwear - US

Footwear sales have been strong, and that trend is expected to continue in both men's and women's segments, thanks to necessity and product innovation. The challenge for brands and retailers lies in encouraging more shopping outside of replacement and continuing to find ways to address changing consumer shopping preferences, especially ...

Online Shopping - US

"While purchases made online comprise a small portion of total retail sales, e-commerce continues to grow at staggering rates with no end in sight. Even many retailers that are struggling overall report their e-commerce business as a bright spot. Consumers value the convenience and (often) favorable prices digital shopping brings ...

Pet Store Retailing - US

challenges in maintaining their position as the ultimate shopping destination for the 73 million pet owners in the US (or 58% of US households). From adapting to shifting demographics and product preferences to competing with online, mass merchants, and independent retailers (eg boutiques), pet specialty will need to adapt to ...

April 2018

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"The US economy weathered the political tumult of 2017 with surprising vigor, as most major economic indicators fared increasingly better throughout the year. The nation's GDP (gross domestic product) has been on the rise for 17 consecutive quarters, and consumer confidence has been marching forward at record levels, while unemployment ...

Men's Clothing - US

"Men have endless options as to where they can shop, which might only lead to more decision-making issues. Since most men are strategic shoppers, many are likely choosing to buy clothes wherever makes the most sense, whether motivated by price or convenience or ability to fulfill other shopping needs, either ...

Convenience Store Foodservice - US

Total c-store (convenience store) foodservice sales reached an estimated $38 billion in 2017; while foodservice sales will grow, Mintel forecasts growth will occur at a slower rate relative to previous years. C-stores tend to have a loyal consumer base that drives most foodservice purchases. Though these consumers are important, operators ...

Convenience Stores - US

"Faced with declines in motor fuel rates, cigarette smokers, and carbonated soda drinkers in recent years, the convenience store (c-store) industry is in a state of change as it looks toward other product areas and innovations to drive sales. Leading retailers in the industry are focused first and foremost on ...
