Consumers and the Economic Outlook - Quarterly Update - UK

“Financial well-being and confidence was lower in each of the three months to October than we reported throughout the summer months. This matches the stagnant economic performance in August and September. Overall though, most consumers are still getting by, and remain relatively optimistic about their financial future.”

The Role of Trust in Financial Services - UK

“Most people trust their financial providers to treat them fairly, but perceptions of the industry in general show that concerns over misconduct still linger. Improving communications and being more transparent in terms and conditions would be a good place to start improving this.”
