"Sales at in-store bakeries continue to rise. Even as consumers indicate they are seeking healthier foods, they are clearly open to the occasional indulgence, and in-store bakeries are poised to capitalize on consumer interest in higher-quality baked goods that the consumers may feel uncomfortable, unwilling, or unskilled enough to make themselves."

- Billy Roberts, Sr Food & Drink Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- In-store bakery sales growth expected to continue
- Stand-alone bakeries offer distinct competition
- Need to evolve appeal beyond larger households
