“One year on, new commercial property lending activity looks to have remained largely unchanged despite Brexit. However, the structure of the market has changed, with a suppression of major financial commitments, a shift from new acquisitions to refinancing of existing deals, widening regional disparities, and heightened caution among lenders.”

– Marco Amasanti, B2B Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- What have been the key determinates of activity over the past year?
- One year on, how has the commercial mortgages market reacted to Brexit?
- How has the structure of the market changed in recent years?
