“Competition in the UK legal services market is expected to further intensify over the coming years, driven by new entrants, rapidly evolving technology, innovation in business models, and changing client buying patterns.”

- Claudia Preedy - B2B Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- What are the implications of Brexit on the legal services market?
- What role does technology and innovation play in the legal services market?
- Is the move by the big accountants into legal services posing a threat to traditional firms?
- Is the trend towards unbundling of legal services set to continue?

The more competitive market also means that technology and innovation will play a key role in ensuring that firms thrive in an ever-changing environment. Firms need to be highly agile, not only responding to current factors impacting the market, but also anticipating the next likely developments.”
