This report looks at the following areas:

- Slow economic growth and intense price pressure restrict market growth
- Demand in construction market becomes more sector specific
- Green energy and low carbon technologies represent key areas for product diversification
- Market set for modest annual growth to 2024 as trading conditions are expected to remain challenging

"The next few years are likely to remain challenging for the electrical wholesalers market with sector-specific demand opportunities combining with continued price pressures. These challenges are being further compounded by the rapid increase in online competition.
