Attitudes towards Home-Delivery and Takeaway Food - UK

“Price is a key consideration when ordering home delivery. This translates to lower consumer spend, as opposed to the average dine-in visit at a restaurant. Changing British lifestyles boost takeaway/home delivery services as consumers turn to delivery services to provide quick meals as they find themselves having no time ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook: Quarterly Update - UK

“Consumer sentiment has remained strong, reflecting growing real wages, low unemployment and, as yet, the absence of any major economic upheaval post-EU vote. When it comes to the impact of the vote, people are relatively positive about the big-picture issues such as the UK’s economic growth, and most feel ...

Contract Catering - UK

“Austerity measures have meant continued strong pressure on public sector bodies to cut spending. While this has led to some outsourcing in the contract catering sector, it has also led to intense price competition and even reductions in some existing contracts. This is particularly true in sectors that have felt ...

Menu Flavours - UK

“The spectacle of freshly prepared food gives people additional reasons to visit a restaurant, given the frugal mindsets of today’s consumer. In terms of flavours, diners want to see more ethnic flavours injected into familiar dishes. When it comes to grab-and-go lunch options, diners seek a wider range of hot ...

Ethnic Restaurants and Takeaways - UK

“It is becoming more important to provide additional reasons to visit, as ethnic restaurants face mounting pressures on recruitment, rising costs and weakening consumer confidence. Casual dining concepts that focus on communicating good food hygiene and offering leisure experiences should support growth but stand to impact on independent players.” ...
