Online Grocery Retailing - UK

“In 2019 growth slowed for the fourth consecutive year in the online grocery market, as the sector continues to struggle to reach new customers with much of the growth in the market coming from existing users. The start to 2020 has seen growth rapidly accelerate due to the COVID-19 outbreak ...

World Cuisines - UK

“World cuisines are an ingrained part of UK menus. Within established cuisines strong demand for newness points to opportunities for introducing new formats, whilst providing on-pack explanations of unfamiliar dishes should help emerging cuisines grow their user base.”

Baby Food and Drink - UK

“That parents would like to see more chilled and frozen varieties poses an opportunity for further expansion in these areas, these being largely untapped in baby/toddler food. While moving into the chilled or frozen aisles comes with hurdles in terms of costs, price points, shelf-life and visibility, the strong ...

Sweet Biscuits and Snack Bars - UK

“The permissibility of eating small amounts of sweet biscuits each day is continuing to support sweet biscuit sales. Portion-size packs, healthier biscuits, seasonal lines and a quality over quantity approach all offer opportunities for brands in biscuits, but familiar favourites offering crunchy biscuits and chocolate coatings will remain most popular ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK left the EU with consumers still expecting Brexit to have a negative overall effect, but with much

Health Food Retailing - UK

The market for health foods continues to grow on the back of the rising trend for health and wellbeing but consumers remain sceptical of the potential benefits of the products. While there are opportunities for specialist retailers to remain relevant, online retailers and especially supermarkets have been working hard to ...

Sugar and Gum Confectionery - UK

“With myriad products competing to give consumers a mood-boosting sugar fix during times of uncertainty, compelling NPD will remain vital for players in the sweets market. Lower-sugar sweets, vegan sweets and premium sweets continue to offer a lot of potential. Focusing on UK provenance and more environmentally friendly packaging would ...

Leisure Outlook - UK

“The coronavirus outbreak presents a catastrophic threat to the sector both in the short- and long term. Meeting Brits in the home can help mitigate losses for some, for example through virtual entertainment and delivery food services. Transparency and flexibility will be welcomed by consumers.”

more positive views than in previous months. The clarity provided by the General Election and delivery of Brexit, continued high employment and above-inflation wage rises, have combined to pushed Mintel's consumer ...

Attitudes towards Healthy Eating - UK

"People's openness to reformulation is good news for the industry, faced with government targets to make their products healthier, but also adds to the pressure to do so. That many would even welcome punitive measures such as taxing unhealthy foods provides food for thought for the government, but also to ...

Home Baking - UK

"Home baking remains popular in the UK, linked to the main reasons for home baking being enduring, but growth in sales is being held back by most people not baking very frequently. Products offering easy shortcuts continue to be an opportunity for brands, given that lack of time and skills ...

Crisps, Savoury Snacks and Nuts - UK

"The wealth of better-for-you NPD has contributed to ongoing growth for this mature market. Consumers' ongoing appetite for more choice in healthier options, both for adults and specifically for children, signals that this area continues to offer opportunities and warrant attention. With taste remaining the top priority within this category ...

Free-from Foods - UK

"With the free-from trend now a firmly established phenomenon, growth is expected to slow. The spotlight on sustainability should, however, support the demand for dairy alternatives. Products catering for special occasions and those for children hold potential for growing sales among established users."
