

February 2016

Seasonal Vacation Trends - US

"The leisure travel industry is in an upswing. Parents of children under 18 years are heavy travelers, especially in the summer when a majority of them take at least one vacation. Winter is the least common season for vacation travel but also when there is disparity between vacations planned and ...