Foodservice in Retail - US

"Retailers are building out their prepared food programs to be more sophisticated and take direct aim at restaurants, as well as other retailers. They are differentiating with more on-site restaurants, which can range from a well-known quick-service chain to a fast casual restaurant helmed by a celebrity chef. And while ...

Dining Out in 2019 - US

"The restaurant industry is expected to maintain strong growth in 2019 thanks to positive economic conditions and increased incremental sales across segments fueled by a demand for off-premise dining. Dining out is a favorite activity for Americans and personal as diners have an increasing desire to form a connection with ...

Foodservice Online Ordering and Delivery - US

"Restaurant delivery and carry out continue to be a bright spot for the foodservice industry with use being driven by consumers across generations looking for convenience and younger consumers looking to relax at home. The majority of consumers still prefer to order directly from restaurants, but interest in third party ...

Dining Out Dayparts - US

"Restaurants are facing increased daypart competition from retailers as well as a decline in traffic overall, but particularly for the three traditional dayparts. To combat growing threats, foodservice operators will need to leverage more on-demand dining and nontraditional dayparts, and target young people, who are the biggest consumers of both ...

Flavor Innovation on the Menu - US

"American diners now have access to an expansive range of flavors, dishes, and cuisines, reflective of the diverse and highly competitive foodservice market. However, while the most adventurous embrace innovative, trendy, and international flavors, the majority still tend to stick with familiar fare, at least most of the time. Opportunity ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"The economy continues its slow and steady recovery, though economists are hesitant to say that it has officially recovered. While some consumers may be watching economic indicators, many are not, and even those who are may not see the direct effects on their daily lives. Overall, if consumers were already ...

Restaurant Decision Making Process - US

"Restaurant industry sales are expected to grow in coming years as positive economic conditions spur increased consumer spending on AFH (away from home) dining. However, with consumers having more choices of where to dine, restaurants must emphasize convenience to capture dining dollars. In addition, operators must offer more than quality ...

Sandwiches, Subs and Wraps - US

"The sandwich, sub, and wrap market has continued to engage consumers with premium, innovative, and tasty fare. Many fast casual sandwich stores and fast food chains are expanding units and growing sales. However, the category is crowded, with grocery stores, convenience stores, and coffee shops creating a complex, competitive landscape ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"Consumers remain confident in their financial health and anticipate little change in the coming year, resulting in stable patterns of financial opinions and behaviors. Consumers hope to save for the future while also maintaining spending levels that accommodate their current lifestyle. This Report looks at the role credit score plays ...

Coffee and Tea on Premise - US

"The foodservice coffee market is highly competitive and many large coffee brands are starting to experience a slowdown in sales due to saturation. However, the incidence of consumers buying coffee away from home has grown, with increased consumption coming from new drink trial. The future of the foodservice market will ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"The US economy weathered the political tumult of 2017 with surprising vigor, as most major economic indicators fared increasingly better throughout the year. The nation's GDP (gross domestic product) has been on the rise for 17 consecutive quarters, and consumer confidence has been marching forward at record levels, while unemployment ...

On-premise Alcohol Trends - US

Sales of alcohol on-premise are rising year-over-year thanks to consumers' interest in premium alcoholic beverages. While the market is growing, competition among bars/restaurants has never been stronger. Foodservice establishments must contend with consumers' preference for drinking at home and must prepare for the next generation of on-premise consumers. Establishments ...

Burger Trends - US

Burgers are menu and consumer favorites and competition emerges from all angles; both burger-specific operators and restaurants that menu them are using more than price promotions to capture more burger business. Consumers indicate a willingness to pay more for burgers made with premium ingredients as operators increasingly innovate with crowd-pleasing ...

Convenience Store Foodservice - US

Total c-store (convenience store) foodservice sales reached an estimated $38 billion in 2017; while foodservice sales will grow, Mintel forecasts growth will occur at a slower rate relative to previous years. C-stores tend to have a loyal consumer base that drives most foodservice purchases. Though these consumers are important, operators ...

Healthy Dining Trends - US

"Consumers are no longer satisfied by the basics when it comes to ordering a healthy dish at a restaurant; unique, flavor-driven dishes are becoming the norm. Highlighting ingredient quality gives even indulgent dishes, like pizza and burgers, a halo of health. Younger consumers are being impacted by this trend and ...

Fast Casual Restaurants - US

Full Service Restaurants - US

Even as things change, they still remain the same. The concept of quality food at an affordable price that launched the fast casual segment has remained a key association. However, as dining habits shift and the landscape gets more competitive, fast casuals look beyond what worked in the past and ...

"FSRs (full service restaurants) continue to experience sales growth and set the trends that influence the entire restaurant industry as well as retail food. However, while the market as a whole is growing, many individual FSRs, especially mainstream casual dining chains, are facing sales losses. Market saturation and changes in ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"Economic improvement continued at a relatively steady clip as a new presidential administration took office at the beginning of the year. While there have been natural catastrophes and tragedies throughout the US, the economy has generally remained stable and any expert predictions continue to be optimistic."

- Jennifer White Boehm, Associate ...

International Food Trends - US

"International cuisines, flavors, and ingredients continue to be an area of opportunity in both foodservice and retail. Young consumers in particular represent a key opportunity as they show high interest in international foods but lack the skills required to actually cook international cuisine at home. While many consumers still prefer ...

Seasonal Dining Trends - US

Seasonal menu items are associated with a positive, treat-based sentiment, which makes them a key focus for foodservice operators. However, with retail maintaining an edge when it comes to seasonal purchases across a variety of categories, foodservice operators need to understand the preferences and demographics of seasonal consumers, while also ...
