

September 2010

Alternative Retirement Strategies - UK

This report investigates the potential role of a select group of savings products in the retirement planning process. These include ISAs, collective investment funds and investment bonds, as well as property related alternatives, equity release and buy-to-let property.

August 2010

Annuities - UK

This report examines the various factors impacting the UK annuity market. In addition to highlighting the impact of economic, demographic and regulatory factors, wider societal trends such as the increasing popularity of taking a phased approach to retirement are also considered. The report also identifies market strengths and weaknesses as ...