Impact of COVID-19 on Transport Usage - UK

“COVID-19 has been hugely disruptive for transport, but offers a chance to reset the dial and build a more sustainable, integrated 21st century network. The car has become a cocoon for many people during the pandemic and the challenge of encouraging a modal shift towards public transport has become that ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“Despite the continuing upheaval caused by COVID-19, financial wellbeing and financial confidence both hit new index highs in April 2021, while planned financial activity for the next three months approached pre-pandemic levels in May, driven by increased interest in leisure and hospitality.

While there are growing signs of polarisation and ...

Package vs Independent Holidays - UK

“The traffic light system and the limited green list have added to the uncertainty about the lifting of international travel restrictions. Consumers are expected to be in even greater need of financial protection when booking their holidays. While the package holiday segment will benefit from this, the independent holiday segment ...
