

February 2023

Travel Insurance - UK

“The relaxation of international travel restrictions in Q1 2022 is expected to kick-start the recovery of the travel market over the next 12 months and beyond. This will naturally benefit travel insurers, who have suffered from reduced opportunities to sell policies during the pandemic. Single-trip policies are set to drive ...

April 2022

Motor Insurance - UK

“Regulatory change marks a new era in the motor insurance market. Pricing and customer retention strategies will evolve throughout 2022 as insurers respond to the changes. Inflation poses a significant challenge for the market, causing claims costs and premiums to rise. Innovation demonstrates the opportunities for this market to enhance ...