Expressions of Identity - US

"Consumers use a range of channels to represent and communicate who they are – or who they want to be – to other people. Authentic self-expression can directly impact their mental wellbeing, as well as help them build likeminded communities. Brands are already embedded into facets of consumers' identity and ...

Social Commerce - US

"Social commerce is growing, albeit at a much slower pace in the US compared to the rest of the globe. This, however, does not mean that brands should ignore this emerging shopping option. Nearly half of consumers have made a purchase via social media, showcasing that this avenue is not ...

Managing Stress and Mental Wellbeing - US

"After facing heightened periods of stress during the pandemic, Americans are paying greater attention to their mental health and making conscientious efforts to boost their emotional wellbeing and cognitive performance. These efforts are paying off for many, with consumers overall reporting better mental health than before the pandemic.

Still, over ...

Medicated Skincare - US

"Consumers continue to experience skin issues as a physical manifestation of both lifestyle choices, such as poor diet and lack of sleep, as well as elevated levels of stress and anxiety. While consumers have adopted a more preventative strategy to managing their overall health, this shift has been slower in ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - US

"Cooling inflation and a solid labor market are likely the direct contributors to consumers' positive outlook entering the new year. With further rate hikes and unemployment projected to rise, revisiting these sentiments six months from now – which is when experts project the US to enter a mild recession – ...

Aircare - US

Beyond Beauty - USA

“Though the category continues to enjoy relatively high incidence of use, as consumers continue to cut back on spending, discretionary products like aircare will be challenged to prove value. Product efficacy, added benefits, and expanded offerings to align with evolving lifestyle needs will be crucial to reinvigorate aircare sales.” ...
