Attitudes towards Casual Dining - UK

"Diners are coming through the doors because of set menus and freebies but they are also demanding greater customer experience. This includes fast speed of service and quality of the atmosphere. With home delivery, operators can cater to diners who are not inclined to travel for a casual meal. Operators ...

Attitudes towards Leisure Venue Catering - UK

"UK consumers are taking part in leisure activities more frequently than in recent years. With the value of the pound being affected by Brexit venues should see further increases in both UK and overseas visitors. Catering facilities at these venues are in a prime position to take advantage of this ...

Pub Catering - UK

"Value-for-money gastropubs are fuelling the pub sector. Diners want set menus and pubs are premiumising them to chase higher spending. There is potential to boost lunch sales, given that diners are interested in lunchtime takeaway options. However, dishes high in sugar, salt and fat may have to be reformulated if ...

Pub Visiting - UK

"Continuing to grow sales will be particularly important to pub operators in order just to stand still in terms of profits, given increased operating costs in 2017. Household budgets also look likely to be squeezed during 2017 by rising inflation, impacting on discretionary spending in pubs. This will all make ...

The Leisure Outlook - UK

"Overall almost all the leisure activities covered have seen increased visitation over the last 12 months which is good news for the industry. It is hard to predict what Brexit will mean in terms of consumer behaviour but it does appear that it is driving more cautious spending and not ...
