Hispanic Consumers' Diet and Wellness - US

"The Hispanic population has the second highest rate of being overweight or obese in the U.S., falling second to African-Americans. This is leading to health conditions like diabetes and hypertension, which are causing more Hispanics to search out foods and health services that can help manage illness. Hispanics are ...

Black Consumers' Diet and Wellness - US

"Black consumers exhibit the highest incidence of obesity and related diseases, but they are doing little to address it. Cultural as well as economic elements play a big role in unhealthy dietary habits and sedentary lifestyle. Creating awareness about the link between diet and food is the key to restoring ...

Soap, Bath and Shower Products - UK

"Changing habits have shown a decrease in the frequency of bathing and an increase in the frequency of showering, translating to a growth in the shower market. This is driven by time constraints and increased water bills but also an ageing population with mobility issues. Extending the shower category to ...

Soap, Bath and Shower Products - US

"The soap, bath, and shower market can expect to see growth in the next few years due to near universal consumer usage of these products for hygiene maintenance along with a lack of competitive alternatives. However, this market does have some issues it will need to address: private label offerings ...
