RTD Alcoholic Beverages - US

“Sales in the RTD alcoholic beverage category will grow for the foreseeable future, but this category has a history of up-and-down performances, from the heyday of the launch of wine coolers to the growth of alcopops and flavored alcoholic beverages, and the accompanying demise between the emergence of each. Due ...

Wine - US

“While indications point to an advantage for off-premise merchandisers, shifts in the market, including the expansion of sales locations, are making the wine retail landscape increasingly competitive. While this is good news for the category, growing the reach of wine, it’s requiring sellers to adopt more creative sales models.” ...

Coffee - US

“Coffee manufacturers face increased competition both from within their own category and from other beverages. Consumers are embracing the choice and variety of coffee options and from other beverages, but with a slowly improving economy, manufacturers will be challenged to maintain consumer interest in in-home coffee consumption.”

– Elizabeth ...

Yogurt and Yogurt Drinks - US

White Spirits - US

“With flavored vodkas reaching a virtual saturation point, the time could be right for the addition of unique flavors into other white spirits. Consumer research shows interest in flavored versions of rums and tequilas, and manufacturers could capitalize on that interest, while also maximizing awareness and usage of existing flavored ...

Dark Spirits - US

“Dark spirits, whiskey in particular, have managed to grow sales fairly strongly in recent years, yet they remain far from routine in consumers’ alcohol-consumption routines. Flavor innovation is drawing the interest of some consumers, but such efforts may be overshadowed by the rush of RTD alcoholic beverages.”

Energy Drinks - US

“The largest percentage of yogurt and yogurt drink users do so for health reasons. Some 44% say they use products in the category because they are healthier than other snack options. Treat positioning is the consumption driver for a smaller 33% of consumers.”

- Beth Bloom, Food and Drink Analyst ...

“While the energy drink and shot category is still young and growing, many consumers are still not consuming them. New launches and marketing is increasing awareness, but the food and beverage industry is overflowing with offerings that provide similar energy functions without the safety and health stigma that plagues energy ...

Tea and RTD Tea - US

“The healthfulness of tea has been heavily pushed through media and marketing. However, consumers’ focus may be switching away from health, which they have most likely come to expect from the category, and are now looking for flavor and product innovation to keep them interested.”

June 2014

Craft Beer - US

“The leading purchase driver among craft beer drinkers is style, pointing to a more discerning consumer base. This focus on style and flavor is a major element that differentiates a craft beer drinker from the rest, and points to the future of beer in the US. Whereas consumers used to ...

Carbonated Soft Drinks - US

“The carbonated soft drink market is continuing to decline as consumers are driven away by artificial sweeteners, high sugar content, and other ingredient concerns. The CSD category is an easy target as other beverages innovate and entice consumers away from sodas.”
