

March 2023

Pets - Ireland

“The cost-of-living crisis is taking its toll on the furry members of Irish families, with owners cutting back on insurance coverage, spending on food and accessories and as a result, more pets are in danger of being surrendered to shelters. The ongoing ‘humanisation’ of pets, however, will mean those with ...