

October 2017

Cloud Computing - UK

“Cloud computing continues to grow strongly as more companies look to migrate IT activities, and early adopters increase the number of applications and processes using the cloud. Market penetration has considerable further potential, with both enterprises and SMEs increasingly adopting cloud computing solutions, which will be furthered as companies move ...