Consumers and the Economic Outlook - Quarterly Update - UK

"People are still wary about the potential impact of Brexit – particularly when it comes to the cost of living. But people seem able to separate these macro-economic concerns from their own personal financial situation. Unemployment remains at record lows, and while average wages are still increasingly more slowly than ...

Retirement Planning - UK

"As people continue to live longer and the government moves to limit the burden on the state, effective retirement planning will become more important than ever before. Older people are working for longer, whether out of necessity or choice. Initiatives such as the Pensions Dashboard will help encourage people to ...
