Household Cleaning Equipment - US

"Sales of household cleaning equipment have experienced marginal growth due to inflation and price competition. Cleaning equipment used in lighter cleaning continues to be more frequently used, as spot cleaning gains wider acceptance as the norm in housecleaning. This shift coincides with a respective drop in cleaning equipment used in ...

Water Filtration - US

"Despite more than half of adults owning either a water filtration system or product, and nearly one third saying they avoid drinking tap water as much as possible, sales of the water filtration market are expected to decline by 1% in 2016."

DIY Home Improvement and Maintenance - US

Small Kitchen Appliances - US

"After years of stable gains, small kitchen appliance sales remained relatively flat due in part to the struggling beverage making appliance segment. Going forward, product innovations that focus on design and function, as well as a stabilizing beverage maker segment, may help restore category growth."

Macroeconomic indicators point to a healthy outlook for the DIY (do-it-yourself) market. Most adults have at least some DIY skills and complete home improvement projects on an occasional basis, though a skills gap continues to limit the project scope of many consumers and curbs participation in the category. In order ...

Pet Supplies - US

"The pet supplies category continues its steady growth trajectory as Americans continue to spoil their pets, which are viewed as loyal family members rather than owned animals. Looking ahead, the category is expected to grow as the pet population ages, creating opportunities for products designed to address common issues that ...

Home Laundry Products - US

"Home laundry product sales have rebounded as innovation in the category resulted in new product offerings and increased consumer spending on higher-margin products. Key drivers for continued growth will focus on further innovation in the category surrounding compactness and scent, as well as a more personalized shopping experience for consumers ...

Grilling and Barbecuing - US

"Grill ownership is strong and positive sales are expected through 2021. Gas format grills are most popular in full-size units, whereas portable units are most popular in charcoal format. Consumer sentiment toward grills differs by generation, in which younger adults enjoy grilling to socialize while older adults grill to cook ...

Patio and Outdoor Living - US

"The patio and outdoor living market continues to steadily gain momentum parallel to the improving economy and housing market. While the majority of Americans have some form of outdoor space, living situation and household income determine what purchases and enhancements can be made. Further growth in the category hinges on ...

Cleaning the House - US

"Cleaning the house may not be something everyone looks forward to, but it remains an essential regular task, with consumers spending an average of more than four and a half hours on housecleaning every week. Understanding consumer attitudes and behaviors regarding cleaning the house is essential for companies marketing products ...

Cookware - US

"The cookware market continues to experience slow growth, benefiting from continued consumer interest in cooking or baking at-home and a variety of innovative cookware features that simplify cooking and cleanup."

May 2016

Dishwashing Products - US

"Practically every US home has dishwashing products. However, being such a universal product category means it can be difficult to drive growth. While dishwashing liquid has been able to increase sales in recent years through innovations such as scented formulas, dishwasher detergent has found it harder to differentiate and faces ...

Lawn and Garden Products - US

The lawn and garden products market is on the rise in an improving economy as more consumers engage in discretionary projects to improve their outdoor living space. In addition, consumers are viewing lawn and garden care as an enjoyable activity with benefits rather than a chore. While a stable and ...

Smart Homes - US

"Only in the past few years has the smart home market emerged onto solid footing following a variety of early product failures, such as $20,000 smart refrigerators that were soundly rejected by consumers. The shift to a more attractive product mix came when manufacturers not only brought down prices ...

March 2016

Air Care - US

"After struggling in recent years, the air care market posted stronger gains in 2015 reflected in growth across all segments. Opportunities exist to engage adults by expanding claims beyond scent, focusing on natural or environmentally friendly options as well as health and wellness benefits. A focus on innovative formats may ...

Residential Flooring - US

"Things continue to look up for the residential flooring market, as a solid housing market and growing consumer confidence create conditions for increased spending on home renovations. The market has seen steady growth since 2011, but pent-up demand for home improvements remains and will help to drive growth going forward."

February 2016

Major Household Appliances - US

"Bolstered by improvement in the overall economy, sales of most types of major appliances stabilized after the end of the recession in 2009 and then started to gain ground in 2013 with further improvement in the housing and home renovation markets. Opportunities to help to accelerate sales further exist in ...

Household Paper Products - US

"The mature household paper products market has experienced flat sales in recent years. Still, while consumers continue to take a value-driven approach to shopping for household paper products, they place importance on product quality and are interested in products that allow them to streamline and simplify tasks, as well as ...
