

September 2022

Jewellery & Watches Retailing - UK

“Recovery remains strong within the jewellery and watches market, with bridal jewellery, a strong luxury sector and the return of international tourism driving positive growth. The cost-of-living crisis will continue to put downward pressure on consumer spending, negatively affecting mid-market and independent brands. Retailers must maintain a strong online presence ...

Online Retailing - UK

“The online market is now in a period of rebalancing, as more store-based shopping comes into the mix, but there is no doubt the channel will receive a legacy boost as a result of the events of 2020 and 2021. The cost-of-living crisis presents both opportunity and threat to the ...

July 2022

Furniture Retailing - UK

“The longer-lasting ramifications of the pandemic are growing apparent, both in how consumers shop for furniture, and in the reassessment of priorities within the marketplace. However, after two years of impressive resilience, furniture sales are set to fall in the coming year as they face the brunt of inflation, supply ...

Food and Non-food Discounters - UK

“Following two years of pandemic-impacted trading the UK's economy has now been hit by record inflation. Amid this growing cost-of-living crisis, consumers are increasingly looking at ways to stretch already tight budgets. The discounters with their clear value focus are set to benefit from this period of financial uncertainty. As ...