

March 2019

Airlines Worldwide - International

“More consolidation is to be expected in Europe’s aviation sector due to cost and competitive pressures. Airfares are starting to rise on a number of routes in response to higher costs. The jury is still out regarding the viability of long-haul LCC operations.”

- Jessica Kelly, Senior Tourism Analyst