Pizzas and Pies: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“More meals and snacks being eaten at home during the COVID-19 pandemic boosted retail sales of both pizza and savoury pastries during 2020. The income squeeze in 2021 and the enduring rise in home working longer term will continue to benefit the category, although consumer interest in healthy eating will ...

Cooking Sauces and Pasta Sauces: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The restrictions and lockdowns enacted to combat the spread of COVID-19 in 2020 have provided a boost to cooking and pasta sauces. The category has benefited from the edict to work from home, a reluctance to visit foodservice venues and people tightening their purse strings. The expected shift towards more ...

Foodservice in Retail: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“While COVID-19 has forced many retailers to scale back high-contact self-serve prepared food offerings, foodservice will emerge from the pandemic more essential than ever to grocery retailers’ long-term growth prospects but will also face even greater competition. Now is the time for retailers to explore expanded menus and ways to ...

Carbonated Soft Drinks: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“Emotion-led motivations to drink CSDs have come to the fore since the COVID-19 outbreak and will be pivotal in driving usage in its aftermath, with nostalgia helping to create a feel-good factor. Strengthening associations with emotional wellbeing, for example with ingredients linked to relaxation, will resonate. There are also more ...

Attitudes towards Cooking in the Home: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The COVID-19/coronavirus outbreak has meant people have found themselves cooking at home more, some out of necessity and some thanks to having more time in their day. Many have developed new skills and there’s marked appetite among many consumers for retaining these habits. Despite this, ease and speed of ...

Eating Out Review: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“For years, pubs and coffee shops have been vying with one another in ruling the high street, and with more consumers staying at home since the start of the pandemic, a fundamental human need for community unlocks the opportunity for both to respond and give consumers a sense of belonging ...

RTD Alcoholic Beverages: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“RTD alcoholic beverages are a bright spot in the alcohol space, avoiding the flight seen in other alcohol categories and even continuing to recruit new and older users. Seltzers remain the growth driver, getting a further boost from large brands entering the market from both within and outside the alcohol ...

Sugars and Alternative Sweeteners: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Like many food and drink categories, after years of weakening sales, the sugars and alternative sweeteners category was the recipient of a significant tailwind from COVID-19 as a result of the dramatic increase in at-home consumption occasions. Consumers are turning to a diverse array of sweeteners, especially those with a ...

Food and Drink Nutrition Claims: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The immune support claim has become of paramount importance to consumers in 2020 due to fears of the virus, and brands, especially beverage brands, are already responding by creating new products featuring vitamins/ingredients including vitamins C and D, and zinc. Consumers want foods and drinks that offer functional benefits ...

Supermarkets: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“COVID-19 will bring a record year for the grocery sector in terms of sales and 2020 will also be the year to mark a rebalancing of the sector. A legacy boost to online will naturally take more demand away from large-format stores and will mean a further rethink about how ...

Nuts, Seeds and Trail Mix: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The pandemic has reinforced consumer interest in health and wellbeing, and driven at-home consumption of nuts, seeds and trail mix. Consumers are seeking comfort, pleasure and satisfaction in healthy snacks, supporting category growth. However, economic uncertainty also reinforces consumer interest in value. This has created challenges for major brands in ...

The Future of Foodservice: 2021: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The US foodservice industry saw unprecedented challenges in 2020 due to the pandemic and recession. These challenges will continue to plague restaurants in 2021, especially full-service ones, delaying a full sales recovery until 2023. To survive the ongoing crisis, restaurants must become off-premise business experts, engaging consumers in new and ...

Super Protein: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Despite the buzziness of plant-based proteins, consumers are still widely engaged with animal-based proteins. While the majority of consumers have made no changes to their protein consumption patterns, for those that have implemented active change, more consumers are increasing rather than reducing. Health, perhaps ironically, is the catalyst for both ...

White Spirits: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Spirit brands are reeling from the loss of on-premise sales, and consumers facing economic hardships prioritize known, familiar brands over experimentation. Opportunities within the market exist despite these challenges. Tequila and gin continue to thrive due to the popularity of premium varieties, and tequila and gin brands are embracing innovation ...

Food and Drink Shopper: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

Food and Drink - International

“Beer sales have been hit hard by the closure of pubs and bars and restrictions during the COVID-19 pandemic, with the increased sales through retail not enough to make up for lost sales through the on-trade. This will mean a bigger emphasis for beer brands on beer drinking at home ...

Better for You Eating Trends: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Many adults rely on better-for-you food products to some degree in supporting their physical and mental wellbeing. The association of better-for-you foods with immune system health will support the market throughout the pandemic and ongoing recession. BFY brands have opportunities to expand their audience – especially to parents, younger adults ...

Foodservice Alcohol Trends: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

Breakfast Foods: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

Food and Drink - International

“Foodservice alcohol sales saw immense losses in 2020 due to the COVID-19 crisis and ensuing recession, just as with foodservice sales overall. Instead of purchasing alcohol from restaurants and bars, consumers stocked up on packaged alcohol from retail channels, which stole enormous market share away from alcoholic beverages sold through ...

Coffee: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“COVID-19 has provided the coffee market with a temporary boost, as the nationwide lockdown brought out-of-home coffee to the home overnight. As the lockdown continues to be eased, however, more coffee occasions are expected to shift back out of home, albeit to a lesser extent than previously. Whilst coffee in ...

Dark Spirits and Liqueurs: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“Despite being a major threat to the market, the re-energised focus of health since COVID-19 also presents opportunities. Being almost non-existent in this category, the rapidly growing low-/no-alcohol space is ripe for development in dark spirits, as is NPD in lower sugar/calorie liqueur drinks. The rise in at-home ...

Yogurt and Yogurt Drinks: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Stay-at-home orders mandated by the pandemic have accelerated yogurt’s return to relevance, as consumers cling to familiar, affordable, health-focused options to meet snack cravings for themselves and their families. The yogurt drinks segment will require some more finessing to find footing, given its strong draw for portability, but has an ...

The Future of Quick Service Restaurants: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“As most QSR operators are forced to streamline their business in response to COVID-19, menu innovation needs to focus on healthful choices as well as broadening consumers’ at-home experiences. These include diet-

“The pandemic prompted a shift in breakfast, with at-home consumption taking a greater role and options from foodservice operators significantly diminished, as morning commutes were, for much of the country and the year, also reduced. Consumers will crave the experience of foodservice-style breakfast and brunch, suggesting that menu-inspired packaged options ...

Vitamins, Minerals and Supplements Trends: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The vitamins, minerals and supplements market will continue to grow despite the economic downturn, due to strong associations in supporting specific areas of wellness, particularly ones trending in the time of COVID-19. While multivitamins continue to show highest usage, consumer demand for more targeted benefits beyond overall wellness continues to ...

Pet Food: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The recession triggered by COVID-19 is prompting consumers to scrutinise their spending. The extensive private label presence on the one hand and the myriad of small specialist brands on the other leave mainstream brands faced with a formidable task to prove their value. Health is as much of a focus ...

Bread: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“COVID-19 has provided a boost to the bread category. With the nationwide lockdown, bread volume sales, which have been on a downward trajectory for several years, rose, thanks to out-of-home breakfasts and lunches shifting to the home overnight.

Hot and Cold Cereal: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“With wellbeing, value and convenience top-of-mind, cereal brands have more than one path to staying relevant with shoppers. After years of declines and stagnation, the cereal category returned to sales growth in 2020 due to COVID-19. Sudden and enduring shifts in daily, especially morning, routines impacted the cereal category, with ...

Vitamins and Supplements: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The pandemic will drive demand for vitamins and supplements as health and wellness become bigger consumer priorities. Immune health in particular is in the spotlight, and brands can look to offering more holistic solutions, considering the links between stress, sleep, nutrition and diet on immunity. The category is expected to ...

Attitudes towards Sports Nutrition: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“While the COVID-19 lockdown has severely curbed exercise opportunities, the outbreak has sparked a keener interest in health and exercise that could open up opportunities for sports nutrition ahead. The economic downturn however poses a stark challenge in the short term, as the market faces intense competition from more affordable ...

Fruit: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The fruit category comprises two distinct groups, fresh and processed, with the former being the behemoth in terms of market share. Fresh accounts for 90% of fruit sales, leveraging a reputation as relatively healthy and largely convenient. Where fresh fruit falls short in terms of health (principally in sugar content ...

Pizza Restaurants: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Pizza restaurants are an indisputable bright spot amid a struggling restaurant industry as a result of the COVID-19 crisis. Many leading pizza chains have managed to grow sales into the double-digits in 2020 due to their continued investments in takeout and delivery and prioritization of value. Pizza restaurants are positioned ...

Restaurant Breakfast and Brunch Trends: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The ease and affordability of making breakfast at home paired with the increase in remote working means the recovery of foodservice breakfast sales will lag behind the foodservice industry as a whole. LSRs facing fierce competition will launch aggressive promotions in a race to the bottom on price in order ...

Fish and Shellfish: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The lockdown helped boost the sales of frozen and ambient as people sought out long-life products. As incomes come under pressure, fish/shellfish’s relatively high price means cutbacks are on the cards. The segment’s healthy image should see it benefit from the increased health focus in the wake of the ...

The Future of Eating Out: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

Attitudes towards Premium Alcoholic Drinks: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“Sales of alcoholic drinks have been hit hard by the COVID-19 pandemic, and encouraging consumers to pay more for drinks will be challenging during a recession. It will be ever more important for brands to give drinkers reasons to pay higher prices, including through communicating superior taste, featuring ‘craft’ cues ...

Breakfast Cereals: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“COVID-19 has provided the stagnating breakfast cereals market with a temporary boost, as the nationwide lockdown brought out-of-home breakfasts to the home overnight. As the lockdown continues to be eased, however, more breakfast occasions are expected to shift back out of home, the category seeing growth slow.

Tea and RTD Tea: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Tea in all its forms has been given a boost by COVID-19 and the changes it has brought to the routines of work and shopping. With natural and inherent properties that convey a plethora of health benefits, like immunity and relaxation, tea’s profile will rise during the pandemic. The category ...

Vegetables: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The vegetable category is notoriously dichotomous: while fresh vegetables have a well-enforced healthy reputation, non-fresh segments fall shorter on BFY associations but deliver on convenience and value. COVID-19 triggered increased sales across every vegetable segment, even the beleaguered canned segment, indicating that even when health is an elevated priority ...

Vitamins, Minerals and Supplements Consumer: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Vitamins, minerals and supplements comprise a dynamic market that has seen consistent growth for over a decade. Dedicated VMS consumers consider these products to be a staple to their overall wellbeing, and most will budget for them despite economic hardships. Still, products with high-quality ingredients at the lowest price point ...

The COVID-19 Impact on Foodservice: Operation Recovery - US

“The COVID-19 public health and economic crisis is creating unprecedented revenue loss for restaurants of all types, although FSRs with a dine-in focus have been the hardest hit. In order to survive and recover, restaurants will all need to offer and invest in easy, efficient and affordable takeout and delivery ...

The Gen Z Diner: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Gen Z is a stressed-out generation coming of age in a time with great unrest and facing grim economic prospects. Restaurants need to respond to Gen Z’s anxieties by focusing on value – whether that be value from low prices, promotions, or high-quality dishes at moderate prices. LSRs are best ...

Tea and Other Hot Drinks: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“While proving troublesome for many markets, the COVID-19 crisis has provided the necessary ingredients needed to reverse the fortunes of the ailing tea and other hot drinks categories. Some of the long-term legacies of the pandemic will also support sales, such as greater remote working and an emphasis on physical ...

Yogurt and Yogurt Drinks: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The changes to consumers’ habits and priorities brought about by the COVID-19 lockdown hit spoonable yogurt in spring 2020. The income squeeze triggered by the outbreak means challenging times ahead for brands, dialling up the need to prove their added value in the already highly price-led category. The heightened focus ...

Food Packaging Trends: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Food packaging, the often-underappreciated element of food at retail, has a chance to shine within a marketplace and consumer base impacted by COVID-19, with 74% of consumers saying they prefer to buy products with packaging that will protect the contents from contamination. Accelerated adoption of ecommerce, heightened attention toward health ...

Natural and Organic Food Shopper: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“The natural and organic food and beverage market is supported to some degree by over half of US adult consumers, and this is likely to remain steady in the years ahead. The health associations of natural and organic foods will make them more important than ever during a global health ...

Soup: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“After years of little growth, COVID-19 has rejuvenated the soup category across segments. Powerful associations with comfort, affordability and convenience are paying off for brands big and small, which are seeing unprecedented levels of growth as consumers find a sense of security and value in the preparedness of a well-stocked ...

Foodservice Coffee and Tea: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Demand for premium made-to-order coffee was strong at the start of 2020 but the market was completely shaken by pandemic-related disruptions. High unemployment is encouraging consumers to choose affordable retail coffee products while the increase in remote working reduces many consumers’ need for AFH coffee. Coffeehouse chains will engage in ...

Marketing to Gen X: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

“Generation Xers crave stability and the reassurance that they will be prepared for the future. Financial concerns make them value-driven shoppers and they look for purchases that offer quality products and affordable pricing rather than a distinctive brand personality. The current recession will only intensify their budget-mindedness as Gen Xers ...

Attitudes towards Pub Catering: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

Baby Food and Drinks: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

"The market for baby/toddler food and drink remains strong, despite the fact that its principal target audience continues to dwindle. However, the COVID-19 pandemic and subsequent recession will push the birthrate down even further resulting in even fiercer competition among brands. Continued growth for the category will demand brands ...

Grocery Retailing: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

"Between 2014 and 2019, multi-outlet sales of groceries continued to rise steadily but slowly. The rapid escalation of the COVID-19 pandemic in March of 2020, however, gave the industry a jolt, boosting sales in the

Salty Snacks: Incl Impact of COVID-19 - US

"Salty snack sales growth outpaced other snack categories and while the category was expected to face a slowdown the COVID-19 pandemic will result in an unforeseen short-term boon for salty snack brands.

Convenience Stores - US

"While fuel sales generate as much as two thirds of total convenience stores revenue and remain a core traffic driver, c-store operators are increasingly turning their attention to in-store categories as the most direct path to increased sales and profits. Still, convenience stores face considerable challenges in categories like foodservice ...

Health Food Retailing - UK

The market for health foods continues to grow on the back of the rising trend for health and wellbeing but consumers remain sceptical of the potential benefits of the products. While there are opportunities for specialist retailers to remain relevant, online retailers and especially supermarkets have been working hard to ...

Baby Food and Drink - UK

"That parents would like to see more chilled and frozen varieties poses an opportunity for further expansion in these areas, these being largely untapped in baby/toddler food. While moving into the chilled or frozen aisles comes with hurdles in terms of costs, price points, shelf-life and visibility, the strong ...

Sugar and Gum Confectionery - UK

"With myriad products competing to give consumers a mood-boosting sugar fix during times of uncertainty, compelling NPD will remain vital for players in the sweets market. Lower-sugar sweets, vegan sweets and premium sweets continue to offer a lot of potential. Focusing on UK provenance and more environmentally friendly packaging would ...

Sports and Performance Drinks - US

"The nearly $9.5 billion market is expected to grow modestly over the next five years, reaching more than $11 billion by 2024. Performance-centric claims and informative messaging can help set brands apart. However, competition from other functional food and drink options (eg water, BFY snack bars) will challenge the ...

Sweet Biscuits and Snack Bars - UK

"The permissibility of eating small amounts of sweet biscuits each day is continuing to support sweet biscuit sales. Portion-size packs, healthier biscuits, seasonal lines and a quality over quantity approach all offer opportunities for brands in biscuits, but familiar favourites offering crunchy biscuits and chocolate coatings will remain most popular ...

Potato and Tortilla Chips - US

"The chip category is in the midst of a decade of steadily growing sales, which should near $17 billion by 2024. Nevertheless, the category faces challenges: increased snacking among consumers has boosted the category, certainly, but it has also led to a rise in competitors, particularly options which promise a ...

Dips and Savory Spreads - US

"Increased snacking and innovation in the refrigerated segment have served the dips and spreads category, pushing expected sales to reach $4.9 billion in 2020, a 3.4% increase from 2019. There is a momentum of innovation in the category, both benefiting and challenging category players, who will need to ...

Attitudes towards Healthy Eating - UK

"People's openness to reformulation is good news for the industry, faced with government targets to make their products healthier, but also adds to the pressure to do so. That many would even welcome punitive measures such as taxing unhealthy foods provides food for thought for the government, but also to ...

Cider - UK

"Promoting craft-style cues such as authenticity, heritage and high juice content may help cider to retain interest among drinkers looking for quality over quantity. Meanwhile, lower- and non-alcoholic variants have made strong inroads in the beer market and may provide more opportunities for cider brands in the coming years, particularly ...

Food Ethics - US

"Food shoppers, especially those aged 18-34, feel increasingly strongly about holding the brands they purchase to high ethical standards, making it imperative for food marketers and retailers to consider ethics in every aspect of their business practices. Still, food shoppers also take a range of other factors into account. In ...

Still and Sparkling Waters - US

"The bottled water market is characterized by the push and pull of two consumer desires; a pull from consumers interested in sustainability and a push from interest in health and wellness. Bottled water brands must make strides toward sustainability or risk being replaced by refillable water bottles and focus marketing ...

Crisps, Savoury Snacks and Nuts - UK

"The wealth of better-for-you NPD has contributed to ongoing growth for this mature market. Consumers' ongoing appetite for more choice in healthier options, both for adults and specifically for children, signals that this area continues to offer opportunities and warrant

While products positioned as weight loss drinks garner the lowest sales and usage in the category, adults are turning to drinks across ...

Full Service Restaurants - US

"The FSR (full service restaurant) sector continues to be outpaced by more affordable and innovative limited service concepts, especially fast casuals. The casual dining segment remains stagnant, although some operators are showing signs of success by curating fun and engaging on-premise experiences, and investing in quality food as well as ...

Weight Management Trends - US

"Obesity rates continue to rise in the US, impacting the health and wellness of Americans. The majority of adults are currently managing their weight, with most relying on self-guided methods over branded nutrition programs. Brands addressing weight management must adopt a personalized, lifestyle-centric approach to garner consideration and use from ...

Free-from Foods - UK

"With the free-from trend now a firmly established phenomenon, growth is expected to slow. The spotlight on sustainability should, however, support the demand for dairy alternatives. Products catering for special occasions and those for children hold potential for growing sales among established users."

In-store Bakeries - US

"Sales at in-store bakeries have increased steadily each year for the past half-decade, growing 15% since 2014 to reach $13.5 billion, and the category still seems to have a significant amount of potential. Younger consumers have yet to significantly engage in the category but should do so as they ...

Crackers - US

"The crackers category continues to grow, topping $8 billion in 2019, a modest 3.4% gain since 2014. The consistent, albeit minimal, growth of the "other" crackers segment was not enough to offset the struggles among other segments. Crackers remain a household staple with 87% penetration but stronger levels of ...
