Feminine Hygiene and Sanitary Protection Products - US

Growth of the overall feminine care products market has been marginal in recent years, as it faces several challenges. Women are having fewer, lighter periods, contributing to declining usage of sanitary protection, specifically tampons. However, an aging population and increased interest in cleansing products bodes well for the adult incontinence ...

Beauty Retailing - US

"US retail sales of beauty products reached $46.2 billion in 2015 and are slated to grow to $51.8 billion by 2020, for a gain of 12%. This slow and steady growth will be fueled by a stronger economy, as well as by population gains among women (and men ...

The Beauty Consumer - US

"The beauty category showed positive growth from 2010-15 and is projected to see continued gains. Looking forward, key demographic groups include Millennials and Hispanics. Nurturing and expanding the Beauty Enthusiasts segment will also be important for product and market growth. Capitalizing on Enthusiasts' interest in experimentation, trends, free samples, and ...

Soap, Bath and Shower Products - US

"When adjusted for inflation, total market sales in the soap, bath, and shower products market have remained relatively flat, though the inclusion of more premium benefits have helped boost sales of liquid body washes and bath products. Going forward, continued launches of products offering premium benefits, as well as product ...

Nail Color and Care - US

"Although growth in the nail care and color market has slowed since 2013, interest in gel polish manicures, nail treatments, and more natural nail care represent key opportunities. Effective outreach to Millennials, moms, and Hispanics via product offerings, digital technology, and targeted marketing can help revitalize the market."
