Artisan Foods - Ireland

The artisan food market throughout Ireland has the potential to help both NI and RoI recover from the recession. However, increased pressure is being placed on the industry due to an increasingly price-driven consumer who has not got used to heavy discounting within the food retailing sector, along with increased ...

Dairy Products - Ireland

With food prices increasing and consumer spending power remaining low, the Irish dairy category is faced with an increasingly challenging operating environment. However sales are still being driven forward by a demand for healthy products.

Foodservice - Ireland

The all-Ireland foodservice market has been in continual decline since 2008 due to the impact of the recession. The Restaurant Association of Ireland (RAI) reported that around 700 restaurants and coffee shops closed down between 2009 and 2011 as a result of the economic crisis.
