Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

"Despite the continuing upheaval caused by COVID-19, financial wellbeing and financial confidence both hit new index highs in April 2021, while planned financial activity for the next three months approached pre-pandemic levels in May, driven by increased interest in leisure and hospitality.

While there are growing signs of polarisation and ...

COVID-19 and Financial Services: A Year on - UK

"COVID-19 has defined the financial services industry over the last year and its repercussions will shape developments in many markets in the years to come. While most consumers' finances have remained relatively healthy and opportunities to spend have been heavily reduced, savings have soared. However, lending – particularly in consumer ...

The Impact of COVID-19 on Household Finances - UK

"COVID-19 has impacted British business and social life like no event since the Second World War. Household finances have not been exempt from this. Rising unemployment and income cuts have plunged some – particularly already vulnerable groups – into financial difficulty. However, furloughs, reduced spending and a rise in remote ...
