

March 2012

Savings - Ireland

Since Mintel last examined the savings market in Ireland (March 2010), the challenges facing both consumers and providers have increased. Disposable incomes have fallen significantly, making it more difficult for consumers to save on a regular basis. Many consumers have been forced to dip into existing savings to cover shortfalls ...