

July 2023

Conferencing and Events - UK

“While there is increased demand for face to face events and conferences, the sector continues to grapple with a number of challenges. High costs, short lead times and staffing challenges remain high on the agenda. Client expectations are also growing, with audience expectations becoming far more experience-led.

A focus ...