

May 2023

The Spirits Consumer - Canada

“Drinking in Canada has never been so exciting. Though beer and wine still are the most popular alcoholic beverages, spirits are gaining ground. From aspiring home bartenders to enthusiastic returns to dining in restaurants, more than half (56%) of Canadians are imbibing spirits or cocktails. While inflationary economic pressures are ...