Natural and Organic Personal Care Consumer - US

"The natural and organic personal care market has grown within natural supermarket channels with many users saying they buy more of these products now than they did one year ago. To increase sales and household penetration, players should work to reduce skepticism evoked by fragmented and confusing claims, and emphasize ...

Skincare Ingredient and Format Trends - US

"The skincare market is highly saturated, and brands are challenged by consumer preferences for simplicity as well as a tendency to stick with the same products each time they make a purchase, limiting product trial. Brands will focus on unique offerings to capture the attention of consumers, with Korean skincare ...

Sun Protection and Sunless Tanners - US

A hotter than average summer resulted in strong 2016 sun protection and sunless tanner sales. Brands are challenged by seasonal usage, with adults typically reserving sunscreen use for warmer summer months when sun exposure is more relevant and top-of-mind. However, interest in products with added skincare benefits, natural offerings, and ...

Beauty Devices - US

"Beauty device sales remain flat due to a struggling hair appliance segment reflecting long purchase cycles, price-driven consumers, and women delaying purchases until their existing item is broken or worn out. Skincare device sales have helped to buoy the overall market, benefiting from the relative newness of the category. Increasing ...

Men's Personal Care - US

The men's personal care market is expected to reach $4.4 billion in 2016, representing growth of 15% when looking at the period from 2011-16. However, sales growth has slowed in recent years as the category stabilized and has been impacted by competition from a growing number of male-specific and ...
