

November 2021

European Retail Handbook - Europe

"In 2020, European countries' combined retail sales value growth slowed down, however, it still recorded a positive performance of +0.5% year on year, which is welcome news considering the challenges caused by the pandemic. The combined value of retail sales for the 36 major economies reached €3.54 trillion ...