

August 2013

State Tourism - US

“Travel marketers must consider the specific needs of different demographics when promoting state tourism. For example, understanding the unique tastes of Hispanic travelers, such as family-oriented travel and destinations and outdoor activities, will help reach this group. Similarly, anticipating the needs of women aged 18-34, who report specific preferences such ...