

January 2022

Accommodation - Ireland

“The number of consumers using accommodation has suffered at the hands of COVID-19. Consumer confidence is low when booking accommodation as a third of Irish consumers fear that they will contract the virus, whilst others fear their travel plans may be disrupted due to restrictions. However, staycations have grown in ...