

February 2014*Grocery Retailing - Ireland

“With the value of own-label grocery products forecast to exceed the value of branded goods from 2015 onwards, manufacturers of branded products will likely begin focusing their efforts on becoming the suppliers of supermarkets’ own-label products to supplement the sales of their core branded goods and increase their overall profitability ...