

September 2021

Consumer Payments - Canada

“Mobile payment systems are gaining traction with younger consumers while debit rewards are expanding along with the use of debit for online purchases but credit cards reign supreme as the dominant payment method.”

– Sanjay Sharma, Senior Financial Services Analyst

August 2021

Health Insurance - Canada

“An aging population and a global pandemic are all factors that will ensure demand for health insurance products while the industry strives to use technology to drive better delivery and smarter care.”