Mechanical and Electrical Engineering - UK

“The M&E sector is now facing very different prospects, depending on the customer focus of the contractor. This is a direct consequence of the Brexit decision and the varied impact it has already demonstrated. There remain some very strong areas of demand, while others are faltering amid economic uncertainty”.

Consulting Engineers - UK

“Despite ongoing economic and political uncertainty, consulting engineers’ fees income is expected to demonstrate continued growth over the next five years. Global challenges, such as population growth, climate change and urbanisation, together with the potential offered by rapidly evolving technology, will offer growth opportunities. In the UK, transport and energy ...

Public Expenditure - UK

“A year on from the Brexit referendum, the primary determinate of public expenditure in the period beyond exit negotiations remains the speculative impact that renegotiated trade deals will have on national income. This uncertainty was compounded by the 2017 general election, which revealed growing weariness from the public around ongoing ...

Cars and Commercial Vehicles - UK

“The primary narrative in the automotive industry over the past year has been the UK’s prospective exit from the European; while still speculative, the industry’s position at the forefront of international trade makes it particularly sensitive to negotiations.”
