

January 2017

Commercial Borrowing - UK

“Post-credit crunch, the industry has faced a wave of new challenges, including unprecedented regulatory changes and, more recently, the uncertainty created following the Brexit vote. Each factor has impacted the sector in a number of ways, requiring lenders to review and develop their positions, while maintaining a more responsible lending ...