“A year on from the Brexit referendum, the primary determinate of public expenditure in the period beyond exit negotiations remains the speculative impact that renegotiated trade deals will have on national income. This uncertainty was compounded by the 2017 general election, which revealed growing weariness from the public around ongoing austerity measures.”

– Marco Amasanti, B2B Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- What have been the drivers of public expenditure activity over the past year?
- One year on, how has the Brexit decision impacted the sector?
- How will the UK look to change public spending in light of political uncertainty?
- What does the future of public expenditure look like?
