"The childrenswear sector is faring well due partly to a growing population of children in the older age groups and a growing interest in fashion-led clothing for children and teens. However, specialist childrenswear retailers are struggling. The large specialist chains must offer more in order to compete and truly stand out."

- Chana Baram, Retail Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- Rethinking the teen offering
- Specialists struggling while clothing retailers expand into childrenswear
- Opportunities for more sustainability in childrenswear
Table of Contents

Overview
What you need to know
Products covered in this Report

Executive Summary
The market
Childrenswear to grow 4.5% in 2018
Figure 1: Best- and worst-case forecast of UK value sales of childrenswear, 2013-23
Share of boyswear increasing
Figure 2: Segmentation of UK childrenswear market, based on current prices, 2013-18
Declining birth rates
Figure 3: Number of live births in Great Britain, 1960-2017
People waiting until they are older to start a family
Figure 4: Standardised mean age of mother in England and Wales, across all births, 1996-2016
Cost of living post-Brexit is a big concern
Figure 5: Economic outlook consumer tracker, July 2018
Companies and brands
Clothing retailers account for largest share of the market
Figure 6: UK sales of childrenswear, % share by outlet type, 2017
Asda dedicates largest amount of space to childrenswear
Figure 7: Men’s, women’s and childrenswear overview, October 2018
Advertising spend set to see large increase in 2018
Figure 8: Total above-the-line online display and direct mail advertising expenditure on childrenswear, 2014-18
The buyer
Supermarkets and clothing retailers most popular
Figure 9: Retailers childrenswear was purchased from, August 2018
Price tops list of reasons to shop at chosen retailer
Figure 10: Reasons for shopping at retailer where most money was spent, August 2018
Quality and offers are top reasons for choosing childrenswear retailer
Figure 11: Reasons people would choose one childrenswear retailer over another, August 2018
Childrenswear buyers want to future-proof purchases
Figure 12: Behaviour towards childrenswear market, August 2018
Time-saving important for childrenswear buyers
Figure 13: Consumer attitudes towards childrenswear, August 2018
The young consumer
Childrenswear purchased as and when needed
Figure 14: How parents feel about childrenswear, August 2018
Two thirds choose comfort as most important feature

BUY THIS REPORT NOW

VISIT: store.mintel.com
CALL: EMEA +44 (0) 20 7606 4533  |  Brazil 0800 095 9094
Americas +1 (312) 943 5250  |  China +86 (21) 6032 7300
APAC +61 (0) 2 8284 8100
EMAIL: reports@mintel.com
Childrenswear - UK - November 2018

Issues and Insights

Rethinking the teen offering
The facts
The implications
Specialists struggling while clothing retailers expand into childrenswear
The facts
The implications
Opportunities for more sustainability in childrenswear
The facts
The implications

The Market – What You Need to Know

Childrenswear to grow by 4.5% in 2018
Share of boyswear increasing
Declining birth rates
People waiting until they are older to start a family
Cost of living post-Brexit is a big concern
Teens anxious about appearance

Market Size and Forecast

Market to grow 4.5% in 2018

Childrenswear to grow 3.6% annually between 2018-23

Segmentation

Share of boyswear gradually increases

Gender-neutral effect
Growing spending on schoolwear
Forecast methodology

Market Drivers: Population

Declining birth rates...

BUY THIS REPORT NOW

VISIT: store.mintel.com
CALL: EMEA +44 (0) 20 7606 4533 | Brazil 0800 095 9094
Americas +1 (312) 943 5250 | China +86 (21) 6032 7300
APAC +61 (0) 2 8284 8100
EMAIL: reports@mintel.com
leading to decreasing number of young children
Figure 23: Projected (2017 based projections) UK population at mid-years, by age of last birthday, in thousands, 2013-22
Figure 24: Projected year-on-year percentage population change, based on 2016 projections, by age of last birthday, 2013-22

Impact of Brexit on birth and population rates
Figure 25: Proportion of live births by country of birth of mother, 2009-17

People are having fewer children
Figure 26: Total fertility rate (number of children per woman) across England and Wales, 2007-17
Figure 27: Family size distribution of women in England and Wales born between 1945-71 assumed to have completed their childbearing, 2016

People wait until they are older to start a family
Figure 28: Standardised mean age of mother in England and Wales, across all births, 1996-2016

Market Drivers: The Economy

Brexit has impacted value of Sterling
Figure 29: Sterling to US Dollar exchange rate chart, by month, Jan 2013-Aug 2018

Price of childrenswear increasing at faster rate...
Figure 30: CPIH percentage change over 12 month period, by market, Feb 2016-Aug 2018

...and a general rise in interest rates led to a squeeze on incomes

People most concerned about the cost of living post-Brexit
Figure 31: Economic outlook consumer tracker, July 2018

Market Drivers: Lifestyles

Around 1 in 5 children are obese by the time they reach year 6
Figure 32: Children’s overweight and obesity prevalence, ages 2-15, 1996-2016

Teens anxious about appearance
Figure 33: Children and teens worried about their appearance, by gender and age, March 2017
Figure 34: Ditch the Label social media campaign with Boohoo.com, 2017

One in five teens use a shopping/retail app weekly
Figure 35: Teen usage of shopping/retail apps, March 2017

Fashion items most popular choice for children shopping online
Figure 36: Items bought by children online, by age group, September 2017

YouTube most popular channel
Figure 37: Teens social media usage, March 2017

Ethical concerns for Generation Z
Figure 38: Leading environmental concerns for Generation Z, June 2018

Companies and Brands – What You Need to Know

Clothing retailers account for the largest share of the market
Asda dedicates largest amount of space to childrenswear
Large specialists struggling
Parents ‘Twinning’ with children
Increased focus on diversity in advertising
Clothing retailers continue to lead

Figure 39: UK sales of childrenswear, % share by outlet type, 2017

Supermarkets continue to do well

Value retailers

Specialists suffering

Space Allocation Summary

Allocation by men’s, women’s and childrenswear

Figure 40: Men’s, women’s and childrenswear overview, by fashion retailers, October 2018

Figure 41: Men’s, women’s and childrenswear overview, October 2018

Detailed category space allocation

Figure 42: Fashion retailers childrenswear space allocation, October 2018

Figure 43: Supermarkets, department stores and other retailers, October 2018

Retail Product Mix

Figure 44: Leading retailers, estimated sales, 2017

Figure 45: Leading clothing retailers: share of clothing sales, by product, 2017

Figure 46: Leading clothing retailers estimated share of the childrenswear market, 2017

Competitive Strategies

Specialists: winners and losers

Mothercare

Mamas & Papas

Figure 47: Mamas & Papas Clapham store, 2016

Small specialist chains

Figure 48: Newbie sustainable event, 2018

More clothing specialists offering childrenswear

Joe Browns

Arket

Reserved

Outfit Kids

Gant

River Island

Figure 49: River Island Kids store in intu Braehead shopping centre in Glasgow, 2018

Jack & Jones

Launch Activity and Innovation

‘Twinning’ with your children

Figure 50: Gresham Blake matching outfits, 2018

River Island Silver & Lux

Luxury childrenswear expansion
Balenciaga
Givenchy
Belstaff

Figure 51: Belstaff kidswear collection, 2017

Net-a-Porter and Mr Porter

Figure 52: Net-a-Porter exclusive Gucci childrenswear collection, 2018

Flannels
MyTheresa

Gender-neutral clothing

John Lewis removes gender labels

Figure 53: John Lewis gender-neutral range, 2017

River Island launches gender-neutral childrenswear range

Figure 54: River Island unisex children’s range, 2017

M&S ‘easy dressing’ range

Tie-ups
Arket x Marion Deuchars

Figure 55: Arket x Marion Deuchars collection, 2018

Sarah Jessica Parker x Gap

Beano collaborations

Figure 56: Stella McCartney x Beano, 2018

Advertising and Marketing Activity

Advertising spend set to see large increase in 2018

Figure 57: Total above-the-line online display and direct mail advertising expenditure on childrenswear, 2014-18

M&S becomes top spender

Figure 58: M&S ‘Life Isn’t Uniform’ campaign, 2018

Figure 59: Total above-the line, online display and direct mail advertising expenditure on childrenswear, by top 20 advertisers, 2014-18

Diversity in advertising

River Island: labels are for clothes

Figure 60: River Island’s ‘Be Incredible’ campaign, 2018

Mothercare

Figure 61: Little Bird Mothercare campaign, 2018

Argos sees major increase in advertising activity

Digital top media channel for childrenswear campaigns

Figure 62: Total above-the-line online display and direct mail advertising expenditure on childrenswear, by media type, 2017-18 (Jan-Oct)

Figure 63: Total above-the-line online display and direct mail advertising expenditure on childrenswear, top 20 advertisers, by media type in 2018 (Jan-Oct)

Nielsen Ad Intel coverage

The Buyer – What You Need to Know

Over a quarter of non-parents bought childrenswear

Supermarkets and clothing retailers most popular
Price tops list of reasons to shop at chosen retailer
Quality is top factor to encourage purchases
Age-appropriate clothing a concern

Childrenswear Purchased

Over a quarter of non-parents bought childrenswear
Figure 64: People who bought childrenswear over 12 months, August 2018

More frequent purchasing done for younger age groups ...
Figure 65: Age of child childrenswear was purchased for, August 2018

...predominantly due to heavier gifting
Figure 66: People who bought childrenswear, by age of child bought for, August 2018

Retailers used for Childrenswear

Supermarkets just as popular as clothing retailers
Figure 67: Retailers childrenswear was purchased from, August 2018

Primark is the most popular clothing retailer for childrenswear
Figure 68: Primark Disney collection, 2018

Shoppers for youngest age group least loyal
Figure 69: Repertoire of retailers shopped at for childrenswear, August 2018

Next is clothing retailer people spent most at
In-store purchases almost twice as frequent as online
Figure 70: Retailers where people spent the most on childrenswear cross-analysed with channels used, August 2018

Reasons Shopped

Price most important aspect for almost two thirds
Figure 71: Reasons for shopping at a retailer where most money was spent, August 2018

Supermarkets chosen for value for money and convenience
Figure 72: Waitrose Mini range, 2017

Figure 73: Retailer where consumers spent the most on childrenswear cross-analysed by reasons for use, August 2018

Department stores shine for quality, style and brands
Online chosen for price and variety, but quality and style are lacking

Factors to Encourage Store Visits

Quality and offers are top reasons for choosing childrenswear retailer
Figure 74: Reasons people would choose one childrenswear retailer over another, August 2018

Two fifths choose affordable basics as an important aspect for a retailer

Other factors are nice to have, but not seen as necessity
Figure 75: Marks & Spencer basic bodysuits made with a special kinder to skin fabric, 2018

Behaviour towards Childrenswear

Childrenswear buyers want to future-proof purchases
Figure 76: Behaviour towards childrenswear market, August 2018
Figure 77: Newbie timeless collection, 2018
Mini-me styles continue to be popular
Figure 78: Lou Teasdale with daughter Lux for River Island x Silver&Lux, 2018

Childrenswear buyers want to take the moral high-ground
Figure 79: WWF and H&M childrenswear collaboration, 2018

Gender-neutral clothing yet to reach critical mass

Attitudes towards Childrenswear

Time-saving important for childrenswear buyers
Figure 80: Consumer attitudes towards childrenswear, August 2018

Online shopping helps to save time and stress
Figure 81: Attitudes towards online shopping – avoiding the stress of taking children into store, by age of child in household, August 2018

Age-appropriate clothing a concern

Jury is out on branded clothing

The Young Consumer – What You Need to Know

Childrenswear purchased as and when needed

Teens go shopping with friends

Comfort is the most important feature in clothes

Primark tops list of favourite retailers

Teens prefer to shop in regular clothing sections

Parent Behaviour towards Older Childrenswear

Three quarters buy childrenswear as and when needed
Figure 82: How parents feel about childrenswear, August 2018

More pressure on boys to be fashionable and wear brands
Figure 83: Parents of children aged 7-15-years-old who agree with the below statements, by gender of the child, August 2018

Who Children Shop With

Older shoppers most likely to go with friends
Figure 84: Who children go shopping with, August 2018

Just 3% of children do not go clothes shopping

Why Children Choose Clothing

Two thirds choose comfort as most important feature
Figure 85: Most important aspects for children when choosing clothes, August 2018

Approval from friends important for all
Figure 86: Missguided refer-a-friend scheme, 2018
Figure 87: Primark's 'Primania' social media page, 2018

Favourite Retailers for Teens

Primark tops list of retailers
Figure 88: Where teens would choose to buy clothes from, August 2018

Store preferences fit in with gender stereotypes
Clothes Shopping Behaviour of Teens

- Teens prefer to shop in adult section
- Branded clothing important to teens
- Social media personalities play important role in clothing decisions

Appendix – Data Sources, Abbreviations and Supporting Information

- Abbreviations
- Consumer research methodology

Appendix – Market Size and Forecast

- Forecast methodology
- Figure 92: Best- and worst-case forecast of UK value sales of childrenswear, 2018-23