"The restaurant industry is expected to maintain strong growth in 2019 thanks to positive economic conditions and increased incremental sales across segments fueled by a demand for off-premise dining."

- Hannah Spencer, Foodservice Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- FSR segment experiences slowed growth
- Cooking at home is restaurants' biggest competition

Dining out is an important part of Americans' lives with consumers reporting a strong desire to have positive restaurant experiences and form connections with restaurant brands. While at-home dining competition and slowed casual dining segment sales are issues, foodservice industry revenues are expected to continue to grow in 2019.
