The UK music concerts and festivals market continues to grow steadily, fuelled by more events, investment from the recorded music sector and economic uncertainty prompting some Brits to substitute overseas trips in favour of UK-based leisure activities."

- Lauren Ryan, Leisure Analyst

This report looks at the following areas:

- The avoidable harm of music events
- Live music in the streaming era

In an increasingly crowded market, operators need to utilise elements of the entire audience experience in order to define their brand and stay ahead of evolving consumer expectations.”
Table of Contents

Overview

What you need to know
Products covered in this Report

Executive Summary

The market
Live music industry continues healthy growth
Figure 1: UK music concerts and festivals market size and forecast, 2014-24

Companies and brands
Live Nation continues to dominate while SJM bounces back

The consumer
Concert attendance boosted
Figure 2: Music concerts visited in the past 12 months, June 2017-May 2019

Festival attendance at highest level in four years
Figure 3: Music festivals visited in the past 12 months, June 2017-May 2019

Young people want the festival experience, while older fans go for the music
Figure 4: Drivers to music concerts and festivals, by generation, May 2019

Three fifths of attendees say festivals are more important than holidays
Figure 5: Priority of music festivals, May 2019

Reward scheme usage on the rise
Brand investment in live events still paying off
Figure 6: Music event purchasing behaviours, May 2019

Contactless wristbands spike in use, and festival apps used by three fifths
Figure 7: Technology use at music events, May 2019

It’s not all about the music
Figure 8: Agreement with statements regarding interest in non-music activities at music events, May 2019

Brits: perhaps not so good at waiting in line?
Figure 9: Improvements to music events, May 2019

What we think

Issues and Insights

The avoidable harm of music events
The facts
The implications
Live music in the streaming era
The facts
The implications

The Market – What You Need to Know
Live music industry continues healthy growth
Rise of day festivals
Weak Pound keeping Brits at UK events
Funding breakthrough for small venues
Secondary ticketing suffering
Ancillary spending expected to grow

Market Size and Forecast
Live music industry continues healthy growth
Figure 10: UK music concerts and festivals market size and forecast, 2014-24
Figure 11: UK music concerts and festivals market size and forecast, 2014-24
Forecast methodology

Market Segmentation
Ancillary spending expected to grow significantly in 2019
Figure 12: Value of the UK music concerts and festivals market, by segment, 2013-19
Secondary ticketing suffering
Glastonbury’s return due to inject £50 million in ticket sales for 2019
Figure 13: Major UK music festivals, 2019

Market Drivers
Rise of day festivals
Weak Pound keeping Brits at UK music events
Funding breakthrough for small venues
Music industry invests in live
Figure 14: Trends in live and recorded music revenue in the UK, 2014-19

Companies and Brands – What You Need to Know
Live Nation continues to dominate
SJM bounces back
‘Take Your Tent Home’ campaign launch
Digital realities are the future
The gender play gap
Advertising spend on the rise

Market Share
Live Nation continues to dominate
AEG slips slightly but profit stable
SJM bounces back
Figure 15: Leading music concert and festival operators, ranked by most recent turnover*, 2017/18

Launch Activity and Innovation
‘Take Your Tent Home’ campaign launch
Advertising and Marketing Activity

Advertising spend on the rise
Figure 16: Recorded above-the-line, online display and direct mail advertising expenditure for concerts, 2016-18

Butlin’s more than doubles its above-the-line expenditure

SIM back up for 2018
Figure 17: Recorded above-the-line, online display and direct mail advertising expenditure, by advertiser (top 10), 2016-18

Nielsen Ad Intel coverage

The Consumer – What You Need to Know

Concert attendance boosted
Festival attendance highest level in four years
Contactless wristbands spike in use
Toilet queues most wanted improvement
Young people want the festival experience
Environmental impact a key concern for music fans
Demand for alternative activities continues to increase
Three fifths of attendees say festivals are more important than holidays

Music Concerts Attended

Concert attendance boosted
Figure 18: Music concerts visited in the past 12 months, June 2017-May 2019

London remains crucial for live music...
...but the North shows growth

Music Festivals Attended

Attendance at highest level in four years
Figure 19: Music festivals visited in the past 12 months, June 2017-May 2019

Half of young men attended a festival
Figure 20: Music festivals visited in the past 12 months, May 2019

Drivers to Music Concerts and Festivals

Music events bringing people together
Figure 21: Drivers to music concerts and festivals, May 2019

Young people want the festival experience
Quarter of young people go for photos...
...but older age groups still go for the music
Figure 22: Drivers to music concerts and festivals, by generation, May 2019

Prioritising Music Concerts and Festivals

Three fifths of attendees say festivals are more important than holidays
Figure 23: Priority of music festivals, May 2019

Half would choose music event over a birthday
Festivals are worth the investment
Figure 24: Priority of music concerts, May 2019

Music Event Purchasing Behaviours

- Reward scheme usage on the rise
  Figure 25: Purchasing behaviours at music events, May 2018 and May 2019
- Brand investment in live events still paying off
  Figure 26: Purchasing behaviours at music events, May 2019

The Role of Technology and Social Media at Music Events

- Contactless wristbands spike in use
  Figure 27: Use of technology at music events, May 2018 and May 2019
  Figure 28: Attitudes towards payment methods at music events, May 2019
  Figure 29: Use of technology at music events, May 2018 and May 2019

Attitudes towards Non-Music Elements

- Eco-impact a key concern for two thirds
  Figure 30: Environmental actions at music events, May 2019
- Demand for alternative activities continues to increase
  Figure 31: Importance of non-music activities at music events, May 2019

Improvements to Music Concerts and Festivals

- Reduced toilet queues are the most wanted improvement
  Figure 32: Improvements to music concerts and festivals, May 2019
- Older fans need more from venues
- Safety is still a concern
- Fans are famished
- Better communication from events wanted

Future Visiting Intentions to Music Concerts and Festivals

- Over half will be going to fewer music events than usual...
  Figure 33: Future visiting intentions to music concerts and festivals, May 2019
  ...but the majority would return if they enjoyed it
  Figure 34: Likelihood of repeat visiting, May 2019

Appendix – Data Sources, Abbreviations and Supporting Information

- Abbreviations
- Consumer research methodology

Appendix – Market Size and Forecast

- Figure 35: UK music concerts and festivals, value forecast scenarios, 2019-24
- Forecast methodology